Application for a Norwegian language course, for foreign workers, autumn term 2019

The adult education in Åseral is now offering a course in the Norwegian language for foreign workers.

The course will take place at Åseral school.

The course consists two nights every week from September until the beginning December. Each night there will be two lessons at 45 minutes each.

When you sign up, you are committed to the whole period.

Certain compassionate leaves may give you exemption.

The teaching will be taught at different levels, depending on the skills our participants have.

We have a minimum limit of 5 participants to start the course.

The course has a cost of 578,- Norwegian «kroner» a month, and the cost of some materials.
